Award season is around the corner

Planning on entering the CPRS National Awards of Excellence, or the IABC Ovation awards this year? MRP can make completing your entry a breeze.

Using Canada's industry standard for measuring earned media will give the leg up when entering your campaigns. One look at an MRP report can tell the judges so much about the success of your campaign – though not the only criteria judges will look for but why not use MRP to help you get noticed.

Both the CPRS and IABC encourage and recommend including MRP reports with your entries.

Sign up with MRP today and we can help you finalize your submission with our "we do it for you" Media Evaluation Service.

Deadlines for submission:

CPRS National Awards of Excellence: March 30 2012
IABC Ovation Awards: March 30 2012
